QUARTERBACKS

The Bulldogs are looking to fill the starting spot behind center for two-year starter Stetson Bennett, who was the Offensive MVP in each of the last two CFP Semifinal and National Championship contests. Junior Carson Beck returns for the 2023 season having served as Georgia's primary backup last year. Beck completed 26 of 35 passes for 310 yards and four touchdowns. He also averaged 6.1 yards per carry after having seven rushes for 48 yards during the Bulldogs' defense of the national championship. Redshirt sophomore Brock Vandagriff played in three games with limited snaps and will join second-year Gunnar Stockton, who redshirted in 2022, in the battle at quarterback.

RUNNING BACKS

Seniors Daijun Edwards and Kendall Milton are Georgia's top returners in the backfield after the duo combined for more than 1,300 yards and 15 touchdowns last season. Edwards added 101 yards receiving for the Bulldogs in 2022 while Milton had a receiving touchdown to complement his performance. Branson Robinson added additional firepower at running back last year with 68 carries for 330 yards and three scores during his first season in red and black. Fellow 2022 freshman Andrew Paul is expected to join the competition after sustaining a knee injury at the start of last year's fall camp. Sevaughn Clark and Cash Jones each had limited time with the offense last year and will return along with early enrollee Roderick Robinson II.

TIGHT ENDS

Georgia has boasted one of the deepest tight end rooms in the country recently and that trend will not change. John Mackey Award winner (nation's top tight end) and All-American Brock Bowers returns to the fold after hauling in a team-leading 63 catches for 942 yards and seven touchdowns while starting 14 of the Bulldogs' 15 contests. Bowers threat as a rusher also grew as the Napa, California took nine carries 109 yards and three scores. One of the nation's best at the position during high school and a 2022 early enrollee, Oscar Delp saw an increased role late in the year to finish with five catches for 61 yards and a touchdown. Bowers and Delp also continued their development as solid blockers for a Georgia offense that averaged 41.1 points per game. Determined to stay at the top at tight end, the Bulldogs added highly-touted Pearce Spurlin III and Bulldog legacy Lawson Luckie as early enrollees while also welcoming David Lalaian to the roster.

Center Sedrick Van Pran was named a team captain and earned Second Team All-SEC honors as the leader of one of the nation's top offensive lines.

Brock Bowers earned Georgia's first John Mackey Award for the nation's top tight end, closing the season with seven catches for 152 yards in the CFP Championship Game against No. 3 TCU.

WIDE RECEIVERS

The Bulldogs utilized a varied passing attack during their 15-0 run to keep defenses off balance. Ladd McConkey was the team's second-leading receiver with 58 receptions for 762 yards and a team-leading seven touchdowns and is back for his fourth-year junior season. Senior Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint will also be a go-to out wide after starting eight games last season and finishing with 29 receptions for 337 yards and two scores. Speedster Arian Smith is another starting option on the outside after he averaged 28.3 yards per catch during his seven receptions in 2022. Dillon Bell, Jackson Meeks, Mehki Mews and De'Nylon Morrissette have also been under receivers coach Bryan McClendon for a year and know the system. Freshmen last year, C.J. Smith and Cole Speer, are also battling for time at the position. With the natural attrition in today's game, the Bulldogs also bulked up with a talented group of early enrollees in Anthony Evans III, Zeed Haynes and Tyler Williams and picked up former Mississippi State receiver Dominic Lovett and former Missouri target Rara Thomas.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

Center Sedrick Van Pran was one of only two linemen who started every game for last year's squad that averaged a school record 501.1 yards per game. He will join returning starting guards Tate Ratledge and Xavier Truss on a line that was a finalist for the Joe Moore Award (nation's top offensive line) in 2022. Junior Amarius Mims started the CFP Semifinal and the National Championship game for an injured Warren McClendon and is back to become a regular starter in 2023. Austin Blaske, who played on primarily special teams or in goal-line situations, Dylan Fairchild, Chad Lindberg, Micah Morris and Jared Wilson are aiming to fill the gaps left by the departed lettermen as well. Four scholarship Bulldogs redshirted last year and will be on offensive line coach Stacey Searels' radar as well this spring in Aliou Bah, Drew Bobo, Earnest Greene III and Griffin Scroggs. The 2023 early enrollee class included Monroe Freeling and Joshua Miller as they add more depth.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

Kirby Smart agrees that games are won and lost on both lines and the Bulldogs have been particularly stout on the defensive line the past two seasons. Senior Nazir Stackhouse and sophomore Mykel Williams each played in all 15 games last season with Stackhouse starting all 15 and Williams getting the nod in a pair. The duo combined for 61 tackles, 9.5 tackles for loss, 4.5 sacks and a blocked field goal versus No. 13 LSU in the SEC Championship Game. They will be complemented by Zion Logue, who had six starts and finished with 16 stops, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Arguably one of the most consistent veterans in the group is also back for another year as Tramel Walthour will attempt to improve on his 24 stops in 13 starts last year. In addition, Warren Brinson and Tyrion Ingram-Dawkins are in the rotation up front and will be targeting more havoc plays this season. Georgia also benefitted from having 2022 early enrollee Bear Alexander in the mix as he wrapped up his first season with nine tackles, including three tackles for loss. Third and second-year players Jonathan Jefferson and Christen Miller are also predicted to share time in the middle as well. Finally, early enrollees Jordan Hall and Jamaal Jarrett got to campus in January and will get early reps.

Defensive lineman Mykel Williams established himself as a force on the Georgia front in his freshman season, tallying two tackles for loss and four quarterback hurries in the College Football Playoff against No. 4 Ohio State and No. 3 TCU.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Second-year coach Chidera Uizo-Diribe will be in search of filling the spots vacated by veterans Nolan Smith and Robert Beal. When Smith went down with a pectoral injury versus Florida, Chaz Chambliss filled in and logged 16 tackles, including three tackles for loss and two sacks. Jalon Walker wasted no time last year breaking into the rotation as the first-year linebacker highlighted his opening season with nine stops, including two tackles for loss, and a blocked punt against Kent State in just his fourth collegiate game. Also going into their second seasons, it will be time for Marvin Jones Jr., Darris Smith and C.J. Madden to establish their place among Georgia's defensive stoppers. The Bulldogs bulked their depth at the position by adding a trio of talented linebackers in Gabe Harris, Jr., Sam M'Pemba and Damon Wilson II who all started school in January.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

The heart of Georgia's defense that allowed only 14.3 points per game and that gave up a single touchdown in the CFP National Championship returns at inside linebacker. Junior Smael Mondon was the unit's leading tackler with 76 stops and he added one of 12 interceptions for Georgia. His friend and teammate Jamon Dumas-Johnson, who earned All-America honors in 2022, was next on the tacklers' list thanks to his 70 stops and a team-leading nine tackles for loss. With Mondon sidelined two game with an injury, Rian Davis aptly filled in and completed his year with 15 stops. With a number of games collectively under their belt, Xavian Sorey and E.J. Lightsey will provide depth along with early enrollee additions C.J. Allen and Raylen Wilson.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Javon Bullard established himself as one of the dominating forces on Georgia's defense during the final two games of 2022. He was named the Defensive MVP after both the CFP Semifinal versus No. 4 Ohio State and CFP National Championship versus No. 3 TCU. The Milledgeville native had a pick during the win over the Horned Frogs and provided a pivotal pass breakup in the opposing endzone as he aims to improve on those performances as a junior. It took all of one game to see Malaki Starks' collegiate potential after he had an interception and eight tackles during the victory over No. 11 Oregon. Kamari Lassiter, who started all 15 games as a sophomore, is back as one of the corners after collecting 38 stops and five tackles for loss in 2022. Playing a large role in the first seven games last season, Dan Jackson returns for an injury and subsequent rehab to play alongside Starks at safety. Tykee Smith headlines another group including Daniel David-Sisavanh, Daylen Everette and Nyland Green who will be targeting increased roles this fall along with JaCorey Thomas and Marcus Washington Jr. The depth at defensive back got even deeper with early enrollees Joenel Aguero and Justyn Rhett and Texas A&M transfer Smoke Bouie getting their first Bulldog snaps this spring.

SPECIALISTS

Australian punter Brett Thorson returns for his sophomore season after averaging 45 yards per kick last year, including a 75-yarder that pinned No. 1 Tennessee inside its 5 yard line. Noah Jones is in place to back Thorson up. Georgia will have to replace Jack Podlesny at place-kicker/kickoff specialist and junior Jared Zirkel and redshirt freshman Henry Bates are in position to battle for that role after backing up Podlesny. William Mote, who shared duties with Payne Walker, returns to snap for both field goals and punts. Jonathan Washburn returns as a backup at the position. At returner, Ladd McConkey will be available as an option after having 16 punt returns for 197 yards and Daijun Edwards also returned a pair of kickoffs in 2022 for 37 yards and is back.

Defensive back Javon Bullard earned Defensive MVP honors in both Playoff games, picking off two passes and recovering a fumble against No. 3 TCU.

Bulldogs Start with Four at Home

Georgia plays host to four consecutive games at home to start the 2023 campaign, including South Carolina in game three to start its Southeastern Conference slate. The last time the Bulldogs played four straight contests in Sanford Stadium was in 2004, topping Marshall, LSU and Vanderbilt before falling to Tennessee in those showdowns. The last schedule that featured four home games to start Georgia's season was in 1999. That year, the Bulldogs went 4-0 with victories over Utah State, South Carolina, Central Florida and LSU.

Two of Georgia's first non-conference opponents, Ball State and UT Martin, the Bulldogs have never faced. Georgia has played UAB twice, winning both, including a 56-7 win in 2021.

Georgia's final home game of seven on the year is versus Ole Miss. The Rebels will be the Western Division crossover and will be making their first trip to Athens since 2012. The Bulldogs ran away with that contest, 37-10.

This is expected to mark the final season in the SEC before the league welcomes in another two teams in Oklahoma and Texas to give the conference 16 teams. The 2023 season will feature possibly the final one with the Eastern and Western divisions. This year, Georgia will play host to South Carolina, Kentucky, Missouri from the East and Ole Miss from the West. The Bulldogs will travel to Auburn from the West, Vanderbilt from the East and meet Eastern foe Florida in the annual Jacksonville, Fla., showdown.

2023 BULLDOG SPRING STORYLINES

Signal Caller

The Bulldogs return six starters on offense, including junior C Sedrick Van Pran and All-American and John Mackey Award winner junior TE Brock Bowers, who was the 2021 and 2022 leader in catches, receiving yards and touchdowns. Georgia ranked fifth nationally averaging 41.1 points per game last season.

Georgia will have to replace the player who lined up behind Van Pran and threw to Bowers in Stetson Bennett. The former walk-on turned Heisman Trophy finalist directed the Bulldogs to their second consecutive national championship in 2022 after completing 310 passes of 454 attempts for 4,127 yards while registering 27 touchdowns to only seven interceptions. Now, Georgia will have the option to roll with junior Carson Beck, redshirt sophomore Brock Vandagriff or redshirt freshman Gunnar Stockton at quarterback.

Speaking of the Line

Georgia's offensive line is slated to return three of five starters after Warren McClendon and Broderick Jones had a combined 56 starts between them and have since moved on to the NFL. The Bulldogs welcome back junior C Sedrick Van Pran, who got the nod in all 15 games last season, as well as redshirt sophomore guard Tate Ratledge and senior guard Xavier Truss, who each started 14 contests in 2022. Junior Amarius Mims filled in for McClendon after a knee injury sidelined him in the Playoff and is poised to battle for a starting spot in the fall. The Bulldogs have an assorted group of players with limited game time and newcomers who will fight to be one of Georgia's top five. The line and the team as a whole will also be playing with a heavy heart following the tragic passing of teammate Devin Willock and staffer Chandler LeCroy in an automobile accident in January.

Majority of Defenders Returning in 2023

A year after Georgia had eight defenders selected in the 2022 NFL Draft, including the No. 1 overall pick in Travon Walker and four other First Round selections (Jordan Davis, Quay Walker, Devonte Wyatt, Lewis Cine), the Bulldogs return seven starters from a corps that ranked fifth nationally last season allowing opponents only 14.3 points per contest.

Starting up front, Nazir Stackhouse, Zion Logue and Tramel Walthour had 34 starts between them last year and will work to fill the void left by All-American Jalen Carter. The team's two leading tacklers from last season, inside linebackers Smael Mondon and Jamon Dumas-Johnson, also return to stabilize the middle of the defense. On the outside, the Bulldogs are aiming to replace captain Nolan Smith and veteran Robert Beal with Chaz Chambliss and rising sophomore Jalon Walker, among others. Reigning Defensive MVP in both the CFP Semifinal and National Championship Javon Bullard is back alongside Kamari Lassiter, who started all 15 games at DB last season, in the secondary along with National Freshman of the Year finalist Malaki Starks. In addition, last year's leader in sacks, Mykel Williams, is expected to play a larger role in his second year while Dan Jackson will be returning at safety following a season-ending injury in 2022.

New, But Familiar Face on the Sidelines

The Bulldogs will feature a new offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach this season after Todd Monken left to accept a similar spot with the Baltimore Ravens. However, Mike Bobo is no stranger to Georgia. Bobo, a native of Thomasville, Ga., who played quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97, had served in the role as a quality control analyst for the Georgia offense since January 2022. He also had a 14-year stint with the Bulldogs from 2001-14 under Mark Richt as quarterbacks coach and then offensive coordinator. Bobo played four seasons with head coach Kirby Smart at Georgia and coached alongside him in 2005 when Smart was running backs coach for a year.

Another group of Bulldog coaches will be entering into their second year in Athens. Bryan McClendon, who won an SEC title with Georgia as a receiver in 2005, returns as passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach; Stacy Searels starts his second year - and second stint - as the offensive line coach after serving in the same role for the Bulldogs from 2007-10; Fran Brown will head up the defensive backs again after his unit had 10 interceptions, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries; and Chidera Uzo-Diribe is back as the Bulldogs' outside linebackers coach after Nolan Smith and Robert Beal finished their careers and are now readying for the NFL Draft.

One Specialist Returns, Another Departs

Sophomore Brett Thorson, a native of Australia, earned All-SEC Freshman honors after arriving as a 2022 early enrollee thanks to his 45.0 average on 36 punts. He highlighted his year one performance by dropping a 75 yarder against No. 1 Tennessee that went out of bounds on the Vols' 1 yard line. Thorson will benefit from having snapper William Mote back in the fold. Mote has been the Bulldogs' primary snapper on punts the past two years and is expected to snap on field goals and PATs this season. Georgia will have to replace Jack Podlesny who anchored down the place-kicker spot the last three years. In 2022, Podlesny was 26-of-31 on field goals and drilled 73-of-74 PATs. Jared Zirkel is in position to replace Podlesny after kicking sparingly the last two seasons. The nation's No. 1 prep kicker, Peyton Woodring, is also scheduled to arrive this summer to provide additional competition at the position.

POINTS TO PONDER

Georgia averaged 41.1 points per game, which was the best in the Kirby Smart era. This average ranked fifth nationally. The school record in 12+ games is 41.3 set by the 2014 squad.

DID YOU KNOW?

Georgia scored TDs on its first seven possessions in its 2022 season-opening win over then No. 11 Oregon.

The Bulldogs' 46-point victory over the Ducks marked the largest margin over victory over a ranked opponent in school history until the CFP National Championship Game when Georgia routed No. 3 TCU 65-7.

The Bulldogs' 99-yard drive against Georgia Tech was the longest during the Kirby Smart era and tied a school record. Georgia needed just five plays in 2:23 to go the distance.

Back-to-back national College Football Championship titles (2021, '22), a 2017 CFP title game appearance, Southeastern Conference Championships in 2017 and 2022, five SEC Eastern Division titles, 81 wins and seven bowl victories are more than respectable rewards over a seven-year period. That's what Georgia got when it hired former Georgia player and Alabama defensive coordinator Kirby Smart to head the program in December of 2015.

His impact, along with a stellar coaching staff, players, and a passionate fan base has put Georgia on the national stage seven years running. The Bulldogs enter the 2023 season having won 33 of their last 34 games.

2022 - Georgia captured its second consecutive CFP national championship and second SEC title of the Smart era in dominant fashion. The Bulldogs went 12-0 in the regular season and soundly defeated LSU in the SEC title game, earning a No. 1 seed in the final CFP rankings. The Bulldogs then came back to defeat No. 4 Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl CFP semifinal and left little doubt who was the best team in the land with a 65-7 trouncing of TCU in the CFP title game at SoFi Stadium in Los Angeles. The Bulldogs were the only team to finish the 2022 season nationally ranked in the top five for Scoring Offense (41.1 points per game) and Scoring Defense (14.3 ppg). The 2022 senior class posted a 49-5 mark with two national championships and one SEC title

2021 - His 2021 team became UGA's first national champion since 1980, the first since 1982 to go undefeated in the SEC regular season, a No. 1 national ranking by all the major polls and the first ever to win 14 games. It marked the fifth straight team to finish the regular season ranked in the top ten of the College Football Playoff rankings. The team set 21 school records, highlighted by the nation's top-ranked defense. The third-ranked Bulldogs defeated #2 Michigan, 34-11, in the Capital One Orange Bowl in Miami and then No. 1 Alabama, 33-18, in the championship game in Indianapolis. The senior class also set the mark for most career wins by going 45-8. After the regular season, Smart was named SEC Coach of the Year for the second time in five years. Georgia's championship season enjoyed a fitting exclamation mark at the 2022 NFL Draft. The Bulldogs set a Draft record with 15 players taken, including five defenders in the first round, led by the first overall selection, junior Travon Walker.

2020 - The 2020 Bulldogs became Smart's fourth consecutive team to earn a New Year's Six bowl game appearance. With a Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl victory over undefeated Cincinnati on Jan. 1, 2021, the Bulldog seniors tied the record for the most wins by one class in school history (44).

2019 - Smart's 2019 Bulldogs became the first team in school history to win 11 or more games for a third straight season. Georgia defeated three teams in the final Top 15 CFP ranking — Notre Dame, Florida, and Auburn — and finished fourth in the final polls. The Bulldogs capped their season with a dominant victory over Baylor in the Allstate Sugar Bowl game.

2018 - Georgia in 2018 posted an 11-1 regular season record, a second straight SEC Eastern Division title, and a ranking as high as number four in the CFP poll. Georgia landed in the Allstate Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1, 2019—the program's tenth all-time appearance in the New Orleans classic.

2017 - Smart's second season in 2017 was a special one, with an 11-1 regular-season record, an SEC title, a win over Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl Game (CFP semifinal) and advancement into the CFP National Championship Game. It was the first conference title since 2005 for the Red and Black.

Both Smart and his players reaped the bounty of their banner 2017 season. He was named George Munger National Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club, SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and SEC Coaches, and the Regional Coach of the Year by the AFCA. Roquan Smith earned first-team All-America honors and the Dick Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker.

2016 - In Smart's first season leading the Bulldogs, Georgia made its 20th straight bowl appearance and posted four fourth-quarter comebacks, including wins over No. 8 Auburn and No. 22 UNC. He led the Bulldogs to an 8-5 final record, which included a victory over TCU in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

As an Assistant Coach

When Smart officially came home to Georgia on Dec. 6, 2015, he had unfinished business as defensive coordinator at Alabama, which was still chasing a national title. He juggled both jobs for a month until Jan. 11, 2016, when the Crimson Tide won its fourth national championship in a 7-year span. Twelve hours later, he was at work in Athens, where he remains one of ten head coaches at schools from Power 5 conferences that are coaching at their alma maters.

Smart had served on the Alabama staff the previous nine years, seven as defensive coordinator. During his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide won three BCS National Championships, one CFP national title, three SEC crowns, six SEC Western Division titles, and was ranked in the nation's final top 10 the last eight years in a row.

During Smart's time at Alabama, he coached players at three different positions, in addition to his coordinating duties. He was recognized as the 2012 AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year and the 2009 Broyles Award winner as college football's top assistant. He also was a finalist for the award in 2015.

Prior to joining the Alabama staff in 2007, Smart spent the 2006 season as safeties coach with the NFL's Miami Dolphins. He served six years on the collegiate level as the running backs coach at Georgia (2005), defensive backs coach at LSU (2004), graduate assistant at Florida State (2002-03), defensive coordinator/linebackers coach (2001) and defensive backs coach (2000) at Valdosta State, and administrative assistant at Georgia (1999).

Smart was the running backs coach for Georgia's 2005 SEC Championship team. He coached Thomas Brown, Danny Ware and Kregg Lumpkin — all future NFL players. In 2004 at LSU, he tutored two NFL draft picks: Corey Webster (2nd round, New York Giants) and Travis Daniels (4th round, Miami).

As a Player

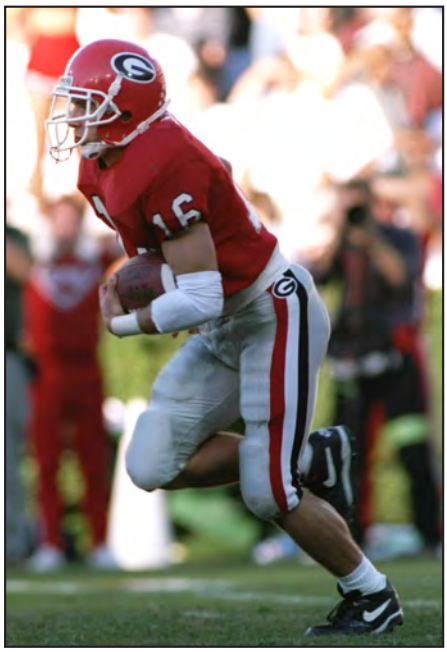
Smart was a four-year letterman at defensive back for Georgia, where he was a First-Team All-SEC pick as a senior. He finished his career with 13 interceptions, a mark that still ranks sixth in UGA annals, and paced the Bulldogs with six interceptions in 1997 and five in 1998. He led the SEC in interceptions during his final season.

A four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Smart received his bachelor's degree in Finance from Georgia in 1998 and his master's in Physical Education from Florida State in 2003.

The Smart Family

The Bainbridge, Ga., native is married to the former Mary Beth Lycett of McDonough, Ga., a 4-year letterwinner and 2-year starter on the Georgia women's basketball team from 2000-03. The couple met long after their undergraduate days at Georgia, when Lycett — then working in the UGA Athletic Association Business Office — helped arrange Smart's trip to interview for the Bulldogs' running backs coaching job in 2005. They are the proud parents of twins Weston and Julia (born Feb. 8, 2008) and son Andrew (born May 25, 2012).

Kirby and Mary Beth Smart also oversee the Kirby Smart Family Foundation, which is focused on being champions in the community by supporting needy children and families facing adversity.



Smart was a first-team All-SEC choice as a senior in 1998, when he led the league with five interceptions. Smart had six interceptions in his junior season of 1997.

Mike Bobo

Offensive Coordinator — Quarterbacks

A Georgia native who played quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97 and was an on-field coach for the program for 14 seasons, Mike Bobo was named a Quality Control analyst with the Bulldog offense on Jan. 28, 2022. He was promoted to Offensive Coordinator in February, 2023.

He is part of a coaching and support staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 College Football Playoff National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semi-final win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl semi-final, 42-41.

The Georgia offense ranked among the top five nationally in both scoring offense (41.1 ppg) and total offense (501.1 ypg). The 'Dogs also finished first nationally in red zone offense (97.6%), first downs (375), and fourth down percentage (86.7%). Senior quarterback Stetson Bennett became the first player to be named the offensive Most Valuable Player in four CFP games including twice in a CFP National Championship Game.

A veteran coach in the Southeastern Conference, Bobo spent the 2021 season as offensive coordinator at Auburn. He worked in 2020 at South Carolina as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after his five-year stint as head coach at Colorado State.

At Colorado State, he guided the Rams to bowl games in each of his first three seasons, making him the lone coach in program history to accomplish that feat. Bobo also joined Sonny Lubick as the only two to coach the Rams in multiple bowl games in their careers.

Overall, Bobo's teams left their marks on the offensive record book at CSU, as his squads own three of the top six marks for total offense in a season as well as the school record for most yards per game in a season (492.5, 2017). His Rams also posted three of the top seven scoring seasons in CSU history.

Bobo spent all but one of the first 22 years of his adult life at Georgia as a player or assistant coach. While in Athens as an undergraduate, he was a record-breaking starting quarterback and then spent 16 seasons working for the program.

Bobo's 14-year stint at Georgia as a full-time coach began in January 2001 when Mark Richt hired him as quarterbacks coach. Bobo had previously worked on the football staff in an administrative role in 1998, then as a graduate assistant in 1999.

Bobo coached the Bulldog quarterbacks through the 2006 season. He then added the duties of offensive coordinator in 2007 and stayed in that post until accepting the Colorado State head coaching position after the 2014 season.

Bobo played four seasons with head coach Kirby Smart from 1994-97 at Georgia and coached alongside him in 2005 when Smart was running backs coach for a year.

During his time at UGA, Bobo helped lead the Bulldogs to 135 victories, including two SEC championships, five SEC Eastern Division titles and eight bowl victories. The 2012 Broyles Award finalist held the offensive coordinator spot for 92 games with the Bulldogs, scoring 30-plus points 57 times, 40-plus points 29 times and more than 50 points 13 times.

In fact, four of the top five seasons for average yards per game in history for the Bulldogs came under Bobo, including the school record mark of 484.15 in 2012.

Bobo guided several talented quarterbacks at Georgia, including Aaron Murray, Matthew Stafford and David Greene, along with wide receiver A.J. Green, running back Todd Gurley and many others. In all, Bobo helped mold four first-round NFL draft choices at Georgia: Stafford (No. 1 in 2009), running back Knowshon Moreno (No. 12 in 2009), Green (No. 4 in 2011) and Gurley (No. 10 in 2015).

Prior to joining Richt's staff at Georgia, Bobo served one year as an assistant coach at Jacksonville State.

Bobo was a quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97, throwing for 6,334 yards, the seventh-most all-time by a Georgia quarterback, and set several Georgia passing records. As a senior in 1997, he threw for 2,751 yards on 199 completions in 306 attempts and had 19 TD to just eight interceptions.

Bobo, a native of Thomasville, Ga., and his wife, Lainie, have five children, a son Drew, who is a 2022 Bulldog signee; triplets Olivia, Jake and Ava Grace; and Kate. His father, George, was a long-time successful high school coach in Georgia.

Glenn Schumann

Co-Defensive Coordinator — Inside Linebackers

Glenn Schumann was named Co-Defensive Coordinator & Inside Linebackers coach at Georgia in February of 2019 after three seasons in charge of the Bulldogs' inside linebackers.

Georgia has continued to set the standard in college football for defense. Schumann has played a central role in keeping the level of performance high. The Bulldogs have led the nation in Scoring Defense and ranked among the national leaders in Total Defense throughout the 2022 campaign.

He is part of a coaching staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 College Football Playoff National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semi-final win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl semi-final, 42-41. The Georgia defense finished the season ranked among the nation's leaders in rushing defense (1st, 77.1), scoring defense (5th, 14.3 ppg), red zone defense (2nd, 0.676), and total defense (9th, 296.8 ypg). The 'Dogs defense also boasted two first team All-Americans in DL Jalen Carter and DB Chris Smith, Butkus finalist (Jamon Dumas-Johnson), Lombardi finalist (Carter), Nagurski finalist (Smith), and Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year Award finalist (Malaki Starks).

Schumann was part of a 2021 staff that led the Bulldogs to the College Football Playoff National Championship with 33-18 win over Alabama in the title game. Georgia set 21 school single-season team records, including Wins and Games Played, as well as defensive marks for Fewest Points Allowed, Fewest Average Points Allowed and Interception TD's. Georgia also finished first nationally in Red Zone Defense, second nationally in Rushing Defense and Passing Efficiency Defense. The Bulldog defense surrendered only three rushing and 10 passing TD's all year.

During Schumann's tenure in Athens, in addition to the 2021 season, Georgia won 11 or more games in three straight seasons for the first time in program history (2017-19). The Bulldogs have also won five SEC Eastern Division titles (2017-19, 2021-22), earned five consecutive New Year's Six Bowl berths, won the 2022 CFP crown and played for the 2018 CFP title.

Schumann's star pupils at Georgia have included a pair of Butkus Award winners -- Roquan Smith in 2017 and Nakobe Dean in 2021 -- and two other finalists: Monty Rice in 2020 and Jamon Dumas-Johnson in 2022. Smith (2018), Dean, Quay Walker and Channing Tindall (2022), along with Monty Rice (2021) and Tae Crowder (2020), were all taken in the NFL Draft. Smith was the eighth overall draft pick in 2018 while Walker was the 22nd overall selection in the 2022 draft.

Schumann came to UGA after eight years with the Crimson Tide, first as an undergraduate analyst (2008-Dec. 2011) and then as a graduate assistant (Dec. 2011-Feb. 2014). In February, 2014, he was named Director of Player Development and Associate Director of Player Personnel serving in those positions until December, 2015.

Born in Valdosta, Ga., Schumann graduated from McKinney Boyd High School in McKinney, Texas, where he lettered in both football and basketball. He earned his bachelor of arts degree from Alabama in December, 2011, and a masters in sports management from UA in December, 2013. He and his wife Lauren have a son, Bryson Eric Schumann, born in September of 2019, and a daughter, Whitley Maryann Schumann, born in May of 2021.

Will Muschamp

Co-Defensive Coordinator

Former Georgia defensive back Will Muschamp joined Kirby Smart's staff in January, 2021, as a senior analyst with the defense. He assumed an on-field role early in the 2021 season working with special teams, in addition to the defensive backfield, and was named Co-Defensive Coordinator in December, 2021.

He is part of a coaching staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 College Football Playoff National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semi-final win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl semi-final, 42-41. The Georgia defense finished the season ranked among the nation's leaders in rushing defense (1st, 77.1), scoring defense (5th, 14.3 ppg), red zone defense (2nd, 0.676), and total defense (9th, 296.8 ypg). The 'Dogs defense also boasted two first team All-Americans in DL Jalen Carter and DB Chris Smith, Butkus finalist (Jamon Dumas-Johnson), Lombardi finalist (Carter), Nagurski finalist (Smith), and Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year Award finalist (Malaki Starks).

The Rome, Ga., native had come full circle since he played safety at UGA from 1991-94. Along the way, Muschamp held coaching positions at all levels of college and professional football including head coaching posts at Florida and South Carolina. In all, Muschamp has coached 38 defensive backs that have been taken in the NFL Draft -- 21 in the first three rounds -- including eight first-round selections, most recently Lewis Cine in 2022.

He got his start as a graduate assistant at Auburn in 1995-96 before taking defensive coaching positions at West Georgia (1998)) and Eastern Kentucky (1999). He moved to Division I in 2001 as a linebacker coach on Nick Saban's staff at LSU before being promoted to defensive coordinator from 2002-04. The Tigers won the BCS National Championship in 2003.

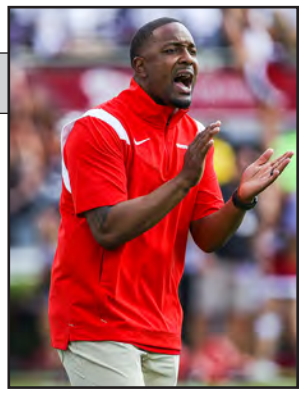
He followed Saban to the Miami Dolphins as assistant head coach in 2005. In 2006 he was named defensive coordinator at Auburn, where he served until 2007. He was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Texas from 2008-2010 before being named head coach at Florida in 2011. In 2015, Muschamp moved to Auburn as defensive coordinator, and in 2016 was named head coach at South Carolina, where he served through the 2020 season.

As a player at UGA, Muschamp was elected the defensive team captain as a senior in 1994 after his starting role as a strong safety. During his career, he played in 44 games and recorded 156 tackles and three interceptions. During his senior season he was teammates with both UGA head coach Kirby Smart and current UGA analyst Mike Bobo.

Muschamp and his wife Carol have two sons, Jackson and Whit.

Bryan McClendon

Pass Game Coordinator - Wide Receivers



Four-year University of Georgia letterman and coach Bryan McClendon was named passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach in February of 2022.

He is part of a coaching staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 College Football Playoff National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semi-final win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl semi-final, 42-41.

The Georgia offense ranked among the top five nationally in both scoring offense (41.1 ppg) and total offense (501.1 ypg). The 'Dogs also finished first nationally in red zone offense (97.6%), first downs (375), and fourth down percentage (86.7%). Senior quarterback Stetson Bennett became the first player to be named the offensive Most Valuable Player in four CFP games including twice in a CFP National Championship Game.

McClendon served as a graduate assistant at UGA in 2007-08 and was named to the full-time staff as running backs coach in 2009, a position he held until 2015. McClendon was named interim head coach at UGA at the end of the 2015 season and led the Bulldogs to a 24-17 victory over Penn State in the TaxSlayer Bowl.

Since that time McClendon has held assistant coaching positions at South Carolina (2016-19) and Oregon (2020-21). He had accepted the post of co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Miami in January of 2022 but left when his alma mater offered him his current position.

At UGA, he coached a number of elite running backs during his tenure, including Isaiah Crowell, Todd Gurley and Keith Marshall, as well as Nick Chubb and Sony Michel. Additionally, McClendon was named National Recruiter of the Year by 247Sports in 2014. McClendon lettered as a wide receiver at Georgia in 2002-05. During that time, the Bulldogs won three SEC Eastern Division titles, two SEC championships and played in four bowl games (2003 Nokia Sugar, '04 Capital One, '05 Outback, '06 Nokia Sugar), winning three of them.

He graduated in December 2005 with a degree in Recreation and Leisure Studies. He is the son of former Georgia tailback Willie McClendon, 1978 SEC Player of the Year and running back for the Chicago Bears.

McClendon is married to the former Amber Arnold of Atlanta. They have three children, Bryan (born 1/10/07), Brooke (born 12/18/11) and Brayden (born 9/18/17).

Dell McGee

Run Game Coordinator - Running Backs

Dell McGee was named Run Game Coordinator and Running Backs coach in 2019 after serving three years as running backs coach and one (2018) as assistant head coach.

He is part of a coaching staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 College Football Playoff National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semi-final win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl semi-final, 42-41.

The Georgia offense ranked among the top five nationally in both scoring offense (41.1 ppg) and total offense (501.1 ypg). The 'Dogs also finished first nationally in red zone offense (97.6%), first downs (375), and fourth down percentage (86.7%). Senior quarterback Stetson Bennett became the first player to be named the offensive Most Valuable Player in four CFP games including twice in a CFP National Championship Game.

In his seven seasons at UGA, McGee has coached four 1,000-yard rushers: Nick Chubb in 2016-17; Sony Michel in 2017; D'Andre Swift in 2018-19; and Elijah Holyfield in 2018. Chubb and Michel finished their careers as the Nos. 2 and 3 rushers in UGA history, amassing over 8,400 combined yards and 87 touchdowns. Chubb, Michel, Swift, as well as recent alums James Cook and Zamir White, were all taken in the first four rounds of the NFL Draft. Additionally, Rivals.com named McGee the 2018 National Recruiter of the Year after the Bulldogs signed the consensus No. 1-rated recruiting class.

Just 10 days before he came to UGA in 2016, McGee led Georgia Southern to victory in its first-ever bowl game (GoDaddy Bowl) as interim head coach.

McGee served as running backs coach at GSU in 2014-15. Prior to joining the Georgia Southern staff, McGee served one season at Auburn, his alma mater, where he worked as an analyst in 2013 when the Tigers reached the BCS Championship Game.

From 2005-12, McGee developed Carver-Columbus High School into a perennial powerhouse as the Tigers rattled off seven straight seasons with 10 or more wins.

McGee was a two-year starter and four-year letterwinner at Auburn from 1992-95, helping preserve the Tigers' undefeated 1993 season with a critical interception against Alabama.

McGee lettered in football and track at Kendrick High School in Columbus, Ga. He and his wife Linda have a son, Austin.

Fran Brown

Assistant Coach - Defensive Backs

Fran Brown, secondary coach at Rutgers in 2020-21, was named Defensive Backs Coach at Georgia in February of 2022. A native of Camden, N.J., he has also held coaching positions at Temple and Baylor.

At the time he joined the Bulldogs, Brown had just completed his second season with Rutgers after being the first defensive assistant to join head coach Greg Schiano's new staff in 2020. Rutgers gained 19 turnovers in 2020, most in a season since 2012, and 10 more than forced the previous season. That included at least one takeaway in eight games, multiple in four games and at least four two times.

Prior to joining the Rutgers staff, Brown was Co-Defensive Coordinator/Cornerbacks at Temple during the 2019 season. Brown guided a defensive unit that ranked nationally in red zone defense, sacks, defensive touchdowns, tackles for loss and fumbles recovered.

Prior to his time at Temple, Brown coached at Baylor during 2017-2018, serving as Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Backs. He initially joined the Temple staff as Director of Internal Operations in 2011. He served as a graduate assistant in 2012 before being named Defensive Backs coach in 2013. In 2016 Brown was promoted to Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Backs.

Brown received his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Western Carolina University in 2006. He was named a team captain and earned first-team All-SoCon selection at cornerback for the Catamounts. Brown had two short stints in the National Football League with the Cincinnati Bengals during the 2007 and 2008 seasons. He was a three-time All-Conference quarterback at his hometown Camden High School, setting the school record with 47 touchdown passes.

Brown and his wife, Teara, have two sons, Fran, Jr., and Brayden.

Todd Hartley

Assistant Coach - Tight Ends

Todd Hartley, a University of Georgia graduate who has also been a full-time staff member with the Bulldog football program, was named tight ends coach on January 14, 2019.

Since coming to UGA, Hartley has helped to create quite a pipeline for tight ends including 2022 Mackey Award winner Brock Bowers as the nation's top tight end. The NFL has also benefited from Hartley's players who have now been drafted in three straight years: Charlie Woerner in 2020, Tré McKitty in 2021 and John FitzPatrick in 2022. That streak stands an excellent chance to continue with Darnell Washington in 2023 and Brock Bowers in 2024.

He is part of a coaching staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 College Football Playoff National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semi-final win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl semi-final, 42-41.

The Georgia offense ranked among the top five nationally in both scoring offense (41.1 ppg) and total offense (501.1 ypg). The 'Dogs also finished first nationally in red zone offense (97.6%), first downs (375), and fourth down percentage (86.7%). Senior quarterback Stetson Bennett became the first player to be named the offensive Most Valuable Player in four CFP games including twice in a CFP National Championship Game.

A native of Gray, Ga., Hartley served as the University of Miami's Special Teams Coordinator and Tight Ends Coach from 2016-18, under head coach Mark Richt. Hartley arrived in Miami after serving as Georgia's Director of Player Personnel in 2015. Before his return to Georgia, he spent four years at Marshall serving in a variety of roles, including tight ends and safeties coach and recruiting coordinator from 2011-14.

Hartley originally joined the Georgia program as a student assistant at the end of the 2005 season. He worked with the offense and special teams until the spring of 2008 while he was an undergraduate.

Georgia tallied three bowl victories during Hartley's years working with the Bulldogs, including a 41-10 win over No. 10 Hawai'i in the 2008 Sugar Bowl. He was instrumental in preparation of the Georgia defense for the 2009 Independence Bowl, when only one full-time defensive assistant was on staff. The Bulldogs routed Texas A&M 44-20 that night in Shreveport.

Hartley graduated from Georgia with a degree in health and physical education in May, 2008. He and his wife Jessica have four children: Tucker, Teagan, Tenley and Tatum.

Stacy Searels

Assistant Coach - Offensive Line

Stacy Searels returned to Georgia as offensive line coach in February of 2022 after serving in a similar position at North Carolina for three seasons.

He is part of a coaching staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 College Football Playoff National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semi-final win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl semi-final, 42-41.

The Georgia offense ranked among the top five nationally in both scoring offense (41.1 ppg) and total offense (501.1 ypg). The 'Dogs also finished first nationally in red zone offense (97.6%), first downs (375), and fourth down percentage (86.7%). Senior quarterback Stetson Bennett became the first player to be named the offensive Most Valuable Player in four CFP games including twice in a CFP National Championship Game.

A 30-year veteran of coaching collegiately, Searels has produced a long list of NFL offensive linemen including 14 draft picks.

Before moving to UNC, Searels coached three seasons at Miami and two at Virginia Tech. Prior to his time in Blacksburg, he had his first stint of coaching with Mack Brown at Texas. Searels joined the Longhorns after coaching the offensive line at Georgia for four seasons (2007-10). He added the duties of Run Game Coordinator in 2009. During his time in Athens, Searels coached a number of all-star offensive linemen, including All-America selections Clint Boling and Ben Jones and All-SEC tackles Fernando Velasco and Cordy Glenn.

Searels came to Georgia after serving four years coaching the offensive line at LSU from 2003-06. During that time, the Tigers went 44-8 and won SEC and national titles in 2003. He joined the staff at LSU after a two-year stint as offensive line coach at Cincinnati. Prior to joining Cincinnati, Searels served as an assistant coach at Appalachian State from 1994-2000, helping the I-AA Mountaineers to five playoff appearances and a pair of SoCon titles.

A three-year starter on the offensive line at Auburn, Searels earned first team All-America honors as a senior in 1987. He blocked for Heisman Trophy winner Bo Jackson in 1985 and All-America Brent Fullwood in 1986.

A native of Trion, Ga., Searels graduated from Auburn with a degree in marketing and transportation in 1990. He added a master's degree in higher education administration from Auburn in 1995. Searels is married to the former Patricia Hale, and they have two daughters, Taylor and Savannah.

Tray Scott

Assistant Coach - Defensive Line

Tray Scott was named UGA defensive line coach on February 10, 2017 after serving two years in a similar position at the North Carolina. Scott was briefly hired as the defensive line coach at Ole Miss in January, 2017, before accepting the Georgia job.

He is part of a coaching staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 College Football Playoff National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semi-final win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl semi-final, 42-41. The Georgia defense finished the season ranked among the nation's leaders in rushing defense (1st, 77.1), scoring defense (5th, 14.3 ppg), red zone defense (2nd, 0.676), and total defense (9th, 296.8 ypg). The 'Dogs defense also boasted two first team All-Americans in DL Jalen Carter and DB Chris Smith, Butkus finalist (Jamon Dumas-Johnson), Lombardi finalist (Carter), Nagurski finalist (Smith), and Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year Award finalist (Malaki Starks).

During his tenure at UGA, the Bulldogs have also won the 2021 CFP national championship, won 11 or more games four straight seasons (2017-19), won five SEC Eastern Division titles (2017-19, '21-'22), and earned six consecutive appearances in a New Year's Six Bowl game. The 2017 'Dogs also played in the CFP national championship game.

In 2021 alone, Georgia defensive linemen reaped a bounty of honors. Jordan Davis won the Outland Trophy and Bednarik Award, as well as First Team All-America honors. Devonte Wyatt earned second-team All-America honors, and both Wyatt and sophomore Jalen Carter were named second-team All-SEC.

In April of 2022, Scott's group made history when three of his charges -- Travon Walker, Davis and Wyatt -- were all taken in the first round of the NFL Draft. Walker was the first overall selection by the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Prior to moving to North Carolina, Scott served two years (2013-14) as defensive line coach at UT Martin. He also held positions as defensive line graduate assistant at Ole Miss (2012), assistant coach at Arkansas State (2010-11). Scott was also a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Arkansas Tech, from the fall of 2008 until the spring of 2010.

Scott earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Arkansas Tech in 2008 and his master's degree from there in 2010. He is married to the former Sarah Fancher and the couple has two sons, Julian and Torian.

Chidera Uzo-Diribe

Assistant Coach - Outside Linebackers

Chidera Uzo-Diribe was named Outside Linebackers Coach on Feb. 6, 2022, after serving briefly as defensive line coach at TCU.

He is part of a coaching staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 College Football Playoff National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semi-final win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl semi-final, 42-41. The Georgia defense finished the season ranked among the nation's leaders in rushing defense (1st, 77.1), scoring defense (5th, 14.3 ppg), red zone defense (2nd, 0.676), and total defense (9th, 296.8 ypg). The 'Dogs defense also boasted two first team All-Americans in DL Jalen Carter and DB Chris Smith, Butkus finalist (Jamon Dumas-Johnson), Lombardi finalist (Carter), Nagurski finalist (Smith), and Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year Award finalist (Malaki Starks).

Uzo-Diribe, a native of Corona, Calif., came to Athens after serving as defensive line coach with SMU in 2021. He followed head coach Sonny Dykes to TCU after the 2021 season before accepting the position at UGA. SMU was 8-4 in 2021 and defensive lineman Elijah Chatman earned All-American Conference second-team honors. Uzo-Diribe also coached defensivel ineman DeVere Levelston who led the conference in sacks.

Uzo-Dribe had previously worked two seasons at Kansas (2019 and 2020) where he served as outside linebackers coach. While with the Jayhawks he coached Kyron Johnson who earned All-Big 12 honors. Prior to working with the Jayhawks, Uzo-Diribe spent three seasons (2016-18) as a graduate assistant with the defensive line and outside linebackers at Colorado. He coached outside linebacker Jimmie Gilbert who earned AP All-America third-team honors.

In the summer of 2018, he participated in the Bill Walsh NFL Diversity Coaching Fellowship Program with the San Francisco 49ers, a program created to offer minority coaches more opportunities to learn, coupled with great exposure to job opportunities. He was also named to 247Sports' recent 30-Under-30 list of rising stars in college coaching.

Uzo-Diribe was a four-year letterman at Colorado and finished his career tied for sixth in sacks, tied for 17th in TFLs and second in forced fumbles. In 2013, he ranked second nationally in forced fumbles with five, and was on the final watch list for the Ted Hendricks Award for the nation's top defensive end of the year, while also opening the season on the Bednarik Award Watch List. Uzo-Diribe went on to sign as a free agent with the New Orleans Saints in 2015.

Uzo-Diribe was married to his wife, the former Hana Asmamaw, in May of 2021, and the couple welcomed twins, Amara and Amani, in December 2022.

Scott Sinclair

Director of Strength & Conditioning

Scott Sinclair was named Director of Strength and Conditioning on January 6, 2016, after serving three years in the same position at Marshall University.

He is part of a coaching and support staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 College Football Playoff National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semi-final win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl semi-final, 42-41.

Sinclair has played an integral part in Georgia's rise to prominence in the past seven years, during which the Bulldogs have won back-to-back College Football Playoff national championships (2021 and '22) and played for another in 2017.

Georgia has also posted three straight seasons of at least 11 wins, won two SEC titles (2017, '22), five SEC East Championships (2017-19, 2021, 2022) and has played in six New Year's Six bowl games.

Sinclair joined the Marshall program in January, 2013, working with both football and track and field teams. He came to Marshall after nine years as an associate director of strength and conditioning at Central Florida.

In May 2012, Sinclair was awarded the highest honor in his field when he was certified as a master strength and conditioning coach at the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association's national conference.

Sinclair served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the football program at Georgia Tech from 2001-03. From 1999-2001, he worked as a strength coach in the Wake Forest athletic department.

A native of Rockingham, N.C., he earned his bachelor's degree in sports medicine from Guilford College in 1999. Sinclair, a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, received a master's degree in physical education from UCF in 2006. Sinclair and his wife, Farrah, have a son, Creed, and a daughter, Asher.

No. 3 Georgia 49, No. 11 Oregon 3

Sept. 3, 2022 • Mercedes-Benz Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

GAME 1

Third-ranked Georgia opened the 2022 season with a 49-3 victory over the 11th-ranked Oregon Ducks in the Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game in front of a record 76,490 fans at Mercedes-Benz Stadium and an ABC nationally televised audience.

Georgia —which won the 2021 national championship —improved to 99-27-3 in season openers, including 7-0 under Coach Kirby Smart. The Bulldogs moved to 2-0 all time against the Ducks.

Senior quarterback Stetson Bennett registered a 25-of-31 passing performance for a career-high 368 yards and two touchdowns in three quarters of work. Bennett also rushed for a touchdown for Georgia.

Senior tailback Kenny McIntosh led the Bulldogs (1-0) with 135 all-purpose yards (117 receiving and 18 rushing) and a touchdown, while redshirt sophomore receiver Ladd McConkey gained 89 yards (73 receiving and 16 rushing) with a pair of touchdowns (one receiving, one rushing). Junior tailback Kendal Milton led the Bulldogs with 50 yards rushing and two touchdowns (one rushing, one receiving).

The Georgia defense stood tall, holding Oregon out of the end zone. The Bulldogs were especially impressive on third down, with the Ducks (0-1) converting just 7-of-15 opportunities.

True freshman defensive back Malaki Starks led the Bulldogs with eight tackles and an acrobatic interception, while senior defensive back Christopher Smith and junior defensive back Dan Jackson each tallied five tackles. Smith had an interception as well.

After McConnkey's 9-yard scoring run in the first quarter, the Bulldogs tacked on three second-quarter touchdowns. Bennett ran for one and threw for one (to McConkey) and McIntosh ran for one for a 28-3 halftime lead. Milton found the end zone and Bennett connected with AD Mitchell to push the edge to 42-3, then Milton caught a touchdown pass from redshirt sophomore quarterback Carson Beck for the final margin of 49-3.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"I was really proud of the way our kids played. We tried to talk about coming out and playing as if we were hunting, and we wanted to play connected football. That was all we talked about all week; we're going to play connected, we're going to play aggressive, we're going to be a hunter. Kids kind of bought into that theme, and they like playing here. Offensively, we did execute at a high level, which when you have an experienced quarterback and you have experienced players, you can do that. I thought Coach (Todd) Monken and his offensive staff had a good plan. They played well. Defensively, we were a little more bend-but-don't-break. At the half, we both had 14 first downs and really had not stopped them like either team had wanted. Some opportunistic turnovers really helped the defense."

RB Kenny McIntosh caught nine passes and had a rushing touchdown to lead an impressive 2022 debut by the Bulldogs' offense.

Worth Noting…

• With its 49-3 victory over No. 11 Oregon, third-ranked Georgia improved to 99-27-3 in season openers, including winning its last nine dating back to a 45-21 over Clemson in Athens in 2014.

• The 49 points were the most in a season opener under Smart, and the most since 2015 (51-14 over La.-Monroe in Athens).

• Georgia limited the Ducks to three points, including a goal-line stand with less than two minutes left in the contest.

• Freshman Malaki Starks notched his first career interception (snagging it while falling backwards at the UGA 8) and finished with a team-best eight tackles. It led to a 92-yard touchdown drive and a 14-0 advantage. Senior Christopher Smith snagged his fourth career interception, and he returned this one for 24 yards to the UGA 44. It led to a touchdown and a 21-0 lead.

• Senior Stetson Bennett imporoved to 15-3 as the starter at quarterback as the Bulldogs racked up 571 yards of total offense on 62 plays. The Bulldogs were 8-for-8 on third down and 6-for-6 in the red zone (all touchdowns) with Bennett at the helm.

• Georgia had six first-time starters, all on defense. Javon Bullard (DB), Juman Dumas-Johnson (ILB), Kamari Lassiter (DB), Smael Mondon (ILB), Nazir Stackhouse (DL), and Mykel Williams (DE). Williams became the first true freshman starter on defense in a season opener since Tyson Campbell (DB) in 2018 against Austin Peay. Williams became just the ninth true freshman starter to make his debut in a season opener in the Smart era.

No. 2 Georgia 33, Samford 0

No. 2-ranked Georgia cruised to a 33-0 win over Samford in the Bulldogs' home opener.

Quarterback Stetson Bennett threw for 300 yards while throwing and running for touchdowns, the defense was dominant throughout, and kicker Jack Podlesny connected on four field goals in front of a crowd of 92,746 at Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium and an SEC Network television audience.

After scoring touchdowns on its first seven drives in last Saturday's season-opening 49-3 rout of then-No. 11 Oregon in Atlanta, Georgia (2-0) didn't get into the end zone as easily against Samford (1-1), an FCS squad from the Southern Conference. Podlesny, who was busy booting extra points last week, made field goals from 27, 25, 26, and 25 yards.

Georgia ended the game with 479 yards of offense, averaging 6.4 yards per play, while the defense held Samford to 128 total yards.

Bennett completed 24-of-34 passes, including a 3-yard scoring pass to receiver Dillon Bell. Running back Kendall Milton led Georgia with 85 yards rushing on 10 carries. Running back Kenny McIntosh had a 1-yard scoring run and caught a team-high five passes for 61 yards. Fifteen different Bulldogs hauled in receptions on Saturday.

Georgia gave up only one first down in the first half and led 30-0 at the break. Late in the third quarter, Carson Beck replaced Bennett and Georgia's third quarterback, Brock Vandagriff, completed the game.

Linebacker Smael Mondon paced the Bulldogs with four tackles. Defensive backs Tykee Smith and Daylen Everette each added three stops. Defensive lineman Mykel Williams had the Bulldogs' first sack of the season and linebacker Xavian Sorey recovered a fumble.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"I was worried that we wouldn't have a great crowd (due to weather), but they did a great job. The rain stayed away, they stayed out. Our fan base showed up, our students showed up. They were loud and proud and the weather held out, which was positive. ... We didn't score touchdowns. Offensively, our goal was, how can we score more touchdowns? When you come off a week like Oregon where every opportunity to score a touchdown, we score a touchdown, No. 1 in the country on Red Zone offense, and then we take a huge step back and have to kick field goals. Good teams, you can't do that. You have to be able to execute well. I can't say what it was — one mistake here, one mistake there. We have to go back and watch the tape, but we have to do a better job."

Smael Mondon (2) and Nolan Smith (4) led a Georgia defense that held Samford to 128 total yards, three first downs, and zero points.

• For the ninth time in the Kirby Smart era, the Bulldogs registered a shutout in posting a 33-0 win over Samford. Samford finished with 128 yards of total offense on 43 plays. The leading tackler for the Bulldogs was linebacker Smael Mondon with four stops and 1.5 tackles for loss. Samford finished the first half with only 59 yards of total offense on 23 plays.

• Georgia rolled up 479 yards of total offense on 75 plays. In the first half, the Bulldogs were 6-for-6 in the Red Zone with three touchdowns and three field goals, tallying 329 yards of total offense on 47 plays in building a 30-0 lead.

• At the start of the fourth quarter with Georgia leading 30-0, it was announced that by mutual agreement of the coaches, the final stanza would be shortened to 12 minutes. The Bulldogs would add one field goal in the second half and finish 7-for-8 in the Red Zone.

• Senior placekicker Jack Podlesny scored a career-high 15 points (4 FGs, 3 PATs) and that was the most by a Bulldog placekicker since 2017 when Rodrigo Blankenship had 17 against Missouri. In his career, Podlesny is now 16-for-16 in the 20-29-yard range.

No. 1 Georgia 48, South Carolina 7

Sept. 17, 2022 • Williams-Brice Stadium • Columbia, S.C.

Led by another blistering offensive performance, top-ranked Georgia defeated South Carolina 48-7 before 78,212 spectators at Williams-Brice Stadium and an ESPN national television audience.

Georgia (3-0, 1-0 SEC) amassed 547 yards of offense, including an average of 8.7 yards per play. Senior quarterback Stetson Bennett finished 16-of-23 passing for 284 yards and two touchdowns, while also leading the team in rushing with 36 yards and a score on three carries. Sophomore tight end Brock Bowers tallied 126 all-purpose yards and scored three touchdowns.

On the defensive end, Georgia held South Carolina (1-2, 0-2 SEC) to 306 yards of offense, with only 197 coming in the first three quarters. Sophomore linebacker Jamon Dumas-Johnson tied his career high with six tackles, while freshman defensive back Malaki Starks, junior defensive back Dan Jackson, and junior linebacker Trezmen Marshall notched interceptions.

Bowers demonstrated his versatility as he pulled in two touchdown passes and had a scoring run. His receptions spanned 78 and six yards, while the rush covered five yards.

Bennett and junior tailback Kendall Milton had the Bulldogs' additional touchdown runs, finding the end zone from one and 11 yards, respectively.

Freshman tight end Oscar Delp made his first collegiate catch a memorable one as he pulled in a 28-yard touchdown pass from sohomore quarterback Carson Beck. Kickers Jack Podlesny and Jared Zirkel, a senior and sophomore, respectively, hit field goals of 42 and 21 yards.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We've got a young team and a lot of them haven't played in or seen that type of environment,. I thought we had some guys grow up today. The offense really executed efficiently and did a nice job. The defense was 'bend, but don't break' again and they've been very opportunistic in terms of getting turnovers after big plays. ... I don't think the (2021 national) championship helps. I think the standard was created last year and the legacy was left. That was a really special group, and that still lingers around our building, not the championship, but the fact in the way they practice, the way they carry themselves. There's a lot of kids that try to emulate those guys that are gone and they're good kids. When you practice hard, you get better."

Tight end Brock Bowers caught two touchdown passes and rushed for a third in the Bulldogs' win over South Carolina.

Worth Noting…

• Georgia tallied 547 yards of total offense against South Carolina. This game marked the second time in Brock Bowers' career (Vanderbilt 2021) that he has scored three times and in that manner in the same game. Quarterback Stetson Bennett went 16-of-23 for 284 yards and two touchdowns in two-plus quarters of work. He also rushed for a touchdown to cap the Bulldogs' season-best drive of 88 yards on eight plays. Kicker Jack Podlesny drilled a season-best 42-yard field goal.

• The Bulldogs were 5-for-5 in the Red Zone with four touchdowns and a field goal. For the season, Georgia improved to 19-for-20 in the Red Zone with 14 touchdowns and five field goals.

• The Bulldogs have allowed 10 points this season, which is the program's lowest 3-game total since 1927. Linebacker Trezmen Marshall had his first career interception, one of three on the day for the Bulldogs. Collectively, the Bulldogs had six tackles for loss.

• Georgia had two first-time starters in receiver Dillon Bell and defensive lineman Tramel Walthour. Kearis Jackson (WR), Warren McClendon (OL), and Jamon Dumas-Johnson (ILB) were the captains.

• Georgia improved to 54-19-2 in the series history with South Carolina, including 21-10 in SEC matchups. The Bulldogs posted their largest margin of victory against the Gamecocks.

No. 1 Georgia 39, Kent State 22

Sept. 24, 2022 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

GAME 4

Tight end Brock Bowers scored two touchdowns and kicker Jack Podlesny made three field goals as top-ranked Georgia beat Kent State in front of 92,746 fans and an SEC Network + audience.

Georgia improved to 4-0, while Kent State slipped to 1-3.

Bowers found the end zone twice as a rusher, sprinting 75 yards in the first quarter and bulling in from two yards in the second quarter to finish as the team's leading ground gainer on the day. The sophomore tight end hauled in five passes for 60 yards.

Podlesny was true on all three of his field goals, converting from 39 in the first quarter and 31 and 32 in the third quarter. He went 3-for-3 on extra points.

Quarterback Stetson Bennett went 27-of-36 for 272 yards. He rushed for a 1-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

Running back Kendall Milton found the end zone from a yard out to seal the victory in the fourth quarter. Daijun Edwards was the Bulldogs' primary workhorse at running back as he carried 12 times for 73 yards.

The Bulldogs' other score came on a safety as linebacker Jalon Walker blocked a punt out of the end zone in the second quarter.

Kent State had a 56-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Collin Schlee to receiver Devontez Walker and a 1-yard scoring run by running back Marquez Cooper. Kicker Andrew Glass drilled three field goals.

Linebacker Jamon Dumas-Johnson and Smael Mondon and defensive back Malaki Starks paced the Bulldogs with six tackles each. Dumas-Johnson had three tackles for loss, including two sacks. Linebacker Nolan Smith added a sack, while defensive back Christopher Smith picked off a pass.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We played a tough opponent. We talked all week and told our team that we thought this was going to be the best team we had played and it came out to be that way. They played really tough. They have a really good quarterback, good system, and they are tenacious on defense. I thought we did really well on offense and had a great game plan. The kids practiced hard. We didn't cash in the chips in the red area, a couple really costly penalties that killed drives. Thank goodness for Jack Podlesny, he just kept on making them, and the defense had some timely stops. ... Turnovers. Three of them, maybe four total when you count the fake punt, that was like a turnover, they got an extra possession. It makes it hard. When you come out ahead like we did sometimes you take wins like that for granted. I have a lot of respect for that team and that program. That was a tough, hard-fought win."

Linebacker Jamon Dumas-Johnson posted six tackles against Kent State, including two sacks.

Worth Noting…

• QB Stetson Bennett finished 27-for-36 for 272 yards and one INT plus a rushing TD. TE Brock Bowers led all rushers with 77 yards on two carries - both resulting in TDs. Georgia had its longest TD-drive of the year (by time), chewing up 6:43 on a 12-play, 75-yard march in the fourth quarter.

• KSU finished with 22 points, running 52 plays for 281 yards of total offense. Georgia entered the game leading the nation in Scoring Defense, surrendering just 3.3 points a game and 10 total on the year. The Bulldogs came in with one sack on the year but tallied three against the Golden Flashes -- LBs Jamon Dumas-Johnson (2) and Nolan Smith.

• Georgia did not have any first-time starters. Nolan Smith, Christopher Smith (SS), Sedrick Van Pran (C), and Darnell Washington (TE) were the captains. In support of Curing Kids Cancer, Georgia wore special helmet stickers featuring the group's logo.

No. 1 Georgia 26, Missouri 22

Oct. 1, 2022 • Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field • Columbia, Mo.

GAME 5

Despite a slow start, top-ranked Georgia defeated Missouri 26-22 before 58,165 spectators at Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium and an SEC Network national television audience.

Georgia (5-0, 2-0 SEC) amassed 481 yards of offense, including 107 rushing yards in the fourth quarter. Quarterback Stetson Bennett finished 24-of-43 passing for 312 yards. Tight ends Brock Bowers (66) and Darnell Washington (64) led the team in receiving yards, while running back Kenny McIntosh led the rushing attack with 65 yards on 11 carries.

On the defensive end, Georgia held Missouri (2-3, 0-2 SEC) to 294 yards of total offense. Linebacker Jamon Dumas-Johnson led the Bulldogs in tackles with eight, including one for loss, and a pass breakup, while defensive back Malaki Starks posted six tackles and a pass breakup.

Tailback Daijun Edwards scored the game-winning touchdown with 4:03 remaining. He found the end zone from a yard out to give the Bulldogs their only lead of the game. Kicker Jack Podlesny, who made four field goals, tacked on the extra point for the 26-22 advantage. Edwards' touchdown capped a 7-play, 68-yard drive.

Five minutes earlier, the Bulldogs got their initial touchdown on tailback Kendall Milton's 1-yard rush. That got Georgia to within 22-19 as the drive covered 75 yards on 10 plays.

Podlesny's field goals were true from 40, 34, 28, and 29 yards. He also drilled both PATs.

Missouri cashed in on five field goals from kicker Harrison Mevis, including a 56-yarder early in the fourth quarter. The Tigers' only touchdown came on a 10-yard pass from quarterback Brady Cook to tight end Tyler Stephens.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"It's never easy (playing on the road). We tried to convince our guys all week. We played together. We stayed together. We showed two of our core DNA traits tonight: resiliency and composure. It took all of the resiliency and composure we had in us to win tonight, I can promise you that. Give Missouri a lot of credit. They created a lot of difficult situations for us offensively and they played really hard. We did not do a great job executing. We missed some layups and they took advantage of those, but I couldn't be prouder of our guys. At halftime I told our guys, 'When we come back in here, we are going to be celebrating because we won this game.' We had a heck of an opportunity and every single one of them believed."

Daijun Edwards scored the game-winning TD with 4:03 left. He later carried the ball six straight times as the Bulldogs expired the clock.

• Georgia faced a pair of 13-point deficits in the first half and was down 10 in the fourth quarter. The Bulldogs overcame their largest fourth-quarter deficit since the 2021 Peach Bowl when No. 8 Cincinnati was up by 11 (21-10) with 13:20 remaining. Georgia would rally for a 24-21 win.

• Georgia executed a fake field goal as holder Stetson Bennett rushed for five yards on fourth-and-3 at the Mizzou 22. It was the team's first since the 2020 Sugar Bowl when holder Jake Camarda ran for a first down. The drive ended with a 34-yard field goal.

• The Tigers tallied 294 yards of total offense on 53 plays and were held to just one touchdown and five field goals. Defensive lineman Jalen Carter returned to action in the second quarter and then left with a knee injury and did not return. Georgia entered the game ranked fourth nationally in Scoring Defense, surrendering just 8.0 points a game.

• Kicker Jack Podlesny tallied 14 points on four field goals and two extra points. He is 12-for-13 on field goals this year with the lone miss coming on a 54-yard attempt against Samford.

• Georgia had one first-time starter in defensive back Tykee Smith as this was his first at Georgia and 18th in his career after having 17 starts while at West Virginia.

No. 2 Georgia 42, Auburn 10

Oct. 8, 2022 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

GAME 6

Behind a strong effort from its defense and a powerful and productive rushing attack — with three touchdowns by running back Daijun Edwards and a crowd-pleasing fourth-quarter touchdown run by quarterback Stetson Bennett — No. 2 Georgia knocked off Auburn 42-10 at Sanford Stadium in front of 92,746 fans and a CBS national television audience.

In the Deep South's oldest football rivalry — Saturday was the 126th meeting — it was an old-school football game, with lots of runs and stuffed runs and very few aerial fireworks. Georgia ran for 292, amassed 500 yards of total offense, held Auburn to 258 yards of total offense, and got big third-down stop after big third-down stop as Auburn was 5 of 17 on third down.

Georgia has now won the last six meetings in the series, dating back to the SEC Championship Game in 2017. Georgia also added to its lead in the overall series against Auburn, improving to 63-56-8.

Edwards found the end zone three times for the Bulldogs, rushing in from one, two, and seven yards. Running back Branson Robinson paced Georgia with 98 yards, including a 15-yard scoring run, and running back Kenny McIntosh added a 1-yard touchdown rush.

Bennett went 22-of-32 for 208 yards and triggered a 21-point fourth quarter as he raced 64 yards for a touchdown.

Linebacker Jamon Dumas-Johnson led the Bulldogs with five tackles, while linebacker Rian Davis added four stops. Linebacker Nolan Smith registered three tackles, including a critical stop on a fake punt attempt by the Tigers. Smith and defensive back Javon Bullard had the Bulldogs' tackles for loss.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"I thought the atmosphere was great. We came out of the tunnel and I looked up in the rafters and it was packed. I knew that Auburn was going to be in for a tough time from the crowd standpoint, a team that had not played on the road in the SEC. I thought our crowd impacted the game. I thought our guys came out with a game plan. Striking, attacking, we really wanted to be physical. We wanted to win the line of scrimmage, we thought it would pay dividends in the fourth quarter, and in the second half being somewhat of a hot day, I thought it took its toll on them, especially in the second half for our team to be able to run the ball like it did. That helped us. We continue to grow and get better. This team has proven its resilience. They're tough, but we've got a lot of things we can clean up. We didn't play as well as we could have, but I want to say I'm very proud of the way our team went after it and attacked."

Stetson Bennett outran several Auburn defenders on a career-long 64-yard touchdown dash early in the fourth quarter.

• Georgia now has won six in a row in the Deep South's oldest rivalry and leads the AU series 63-56-8. Coach Kirby Smart is 7-1 against the Tigers, including 4-0 in Athens. Overall, Georgia is 34-4 at home under Smart.

• The Bulldog defense limited the Tigers to only 10 points with 258 yards of offense on 63 plays. Georgia entered the game ranked fourth nationally in Scoring Defense, surrendering just 10.8 points a game. For the third time this season, the Bulldogs blanked a team in the first half. The leading tackler was LB Jamon Dumas-Johnson with five stops.

• Georgia went 5-for-5 in the Red Zone with five TDs. Auburn was 1-for-1 with a field goal. Georgia improved to 35-for-36 in scoring in the Red Zone this season with 24 TDs and 11 FGs.

• Georgia came in averaging 39 points a game and scored 42, finishing with 500 yards on 71 plays. RB Daijun Edwards had 12 rushes for 83 yards and three touchdowns, while RB Branson Robinson finished with 12 carries for 98 yards, both career highs, and his first career TD. QB Stetson Bennett completed 22-of-32 passes for 208 yards and scampered a career-long 64 yards for a TD.

• Georgia had one first-time starter in LB Rian Davis, who finished with a career-high four tackles. Dumas-Johnson, RB Kenny McIntosh, LB Nolan Smith, and TE Darnell Washington were the captains. In partnership with Hilinski's Hope, the Bulldogs wore green ribbon helmet decals with the number three as part of College Football Mental Health Week.

No. 1 Georgia 55, Vanderbilt 0

GAME 7

Top-ranked Georgia looked sharp in every phase of the game, cruising to a 55-0 win over Vanderbilt in front of 92,746 fans at Sanford Stadium and an SEC Network audience.

Quarterback Stetson Bennett completed 24-of-30 passes for 289 yards and two touchdowns, while the Georgia defense never let the Commodores set sail.

Georgia (7-0, 4-0 SEC) heads into its off week on a high note after dominating the game from start to finish. The offense gained 579 yards, the defense held Vanderbilt (3-4, 0-3) to just 150, and Georgia also made something happen on special teams, both kicking and returning.

Bennett threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to running back Kenny McIntosh and a 10-yarder to receiver Dominick Blaylock. Reserve quarterback Carson Beck got in on the act with scoring tosses of 24 yards to receiver Dillon Bell and four yards to tight end Arik Gilbert (his first as a Bulldog).

McIntosh also had a rushing touchdown covering seven yards. Running back Daijun Edwards, who paced the Bulldogs with 49 yards, powered in from a yard out. Reserve running back Cash Jones capped the day with his first career touchdown run, a 36-yarder.

Kicker Jack Podlesny connected on third-quarter field goals of 28 and 35 yards.

Defensive back Chris Smith led the Bulldogs with five tackles, including one for loss, and a fumble recovery. Linebackers Jamon Dumas-Johnson and Jalon Walker added four tackles each.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We had an awesome week. We had great practices Tuesday, Wednesday. What a great week for the University of Georgia, with homecoming being this weekend, Good Morning America being here and giving us great recognition. Then our team coming out and dominating. We started fast. I just think it's a great week to be a University of Georgia Bulldog. I was really impressed with the performance early. I thought Stetson had good rhythm and was more accurate. We ran the ball,we mixed run and pass, and we got to play a lot of players. Our offensive line played well, they have to. They're the guys that can really help us up front. They picked up some blitzes there that they got aggressive in the second half and started coming after us. (Defensively) The line of scrimmage was the big part of it. We won the line of scrimmage and once they couldn't run the ball, the quarterback struggled."

The Georgia defense, led by Tykee Smith (2 tackles, 1 forced fumble, 1 pass breakup) and Chris Smith (5 tackles, 1 fumble recovery), pitched its second shutout of the season, and second straight against the Commodores.

Worth Noting…

• Georgia now has won five in a row against the Commodores and leads the series 60-20-2, including 22-4 on Homecoming. Head coach Kirby Smart is 5-1 against Vanderbilt. Overall, the Bulldogs now are 35-4 at home under Smart and 73-15 overall. The Bulldogs blanked Vanderbilt for the second consecutive time in the series (55-0 and 62-0 in 2021), marking the first time Georgia has done that to an SEC team since 1980-81 Kentucky (27-0 and 21-0). The Bulldogs have two shutouts this year (33-0 over Samford) and now 10 in the Smart era, including six in the SEC.

• Georgia went 7-for-7 in the Red Zone with five TDs and two FGs. For the year, Georgia is now 42-for-43 in scoring in the Red Zone with 29 TDs and 13 FGs. Georgia came in averaging 39.5 points a game, jumped out to a 28-0 halftime lead, and won 55-0 with 579 yards of total offense (192 rushing, 387 passing). The points and total offense were season highs.

• Georgia has won 22 straight regular-season games, including 16 straight Between the Hedges. The Bulldogs have won their last 15 SEC regular-season games. Also, Georgia extended its sellout streak to 62 games dating back to 2012.

• TE Brock Bowers, DT Zion Logue, RT Warren McClendon, and PK Jack Podlesny (PK) were the captains.

• Selected by a student vote, the Queen and King were Madison Polk of Lithonia, Ga., and Obamide Samaye, an Atlanta native.

No. 1 Georgia 42, Florida 20

Oct. 29, 2022 • TIAA Bank Field • Jacksonville, Fla.

GAME 8

The No. 1-ranked Georgia football team built a big lead, saw much of it disappear, then built it up again, before finally finishing off Florida, 42-20, on Saturday afternoon in front of 75,868 fans at TIAA Bank Field and a national CBS television audience.

Georgia (8-0, 5-0 SEC) jumped out to a 21-0 lead but later hurt itself with three turnovers that helped Florida (4-4, 1-4) get back in the game. The Bulldogs finished with 555 yards of offense to the Gators' 371.

Quarterback Stetson Bennett threw for 316 yards and two touchdowns, while the ground game produced 239 yards and four touchdowns. Daijun Edwards (106 yards, Georgia's first 100-yard rushing game of the season) and Kenny McIntosh (90 yards) both scored two rushing touchdowns. Tight end Brock Bowers hauled in five passes for 154 yards, including a 73-yard touchdown.

After meeting No. 101 in this border-state battle, the Bulldogs now hold a 55-44-2 advantage. This was the second straight year in which Georgia came in as the No. 1 team in the country while the Gators were unranked. Georgia coach Kirby Smart is now 5-2 against Florida, with the Bulldogs winning five of the last six.

Saturday's game came one day after the passing of former Georgia coach and director of athletics Vince Dooley, who died at home in Athens Friday at age 90. In his 25 seasons as Georgia's coach, Dooley went 17-7-1 against Florida, including 12-3 over his final 15 meetings.

The Bulldogs wore a helmet sticker Saturday that read "62" in honor of Georgia football and baseball legend Charley Trippi, who died on Oct. 19 at age 100.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"What a great environment and great game. To the Dooleys back home in Athens I know they are together. It meant a lot for us to win that game for them because of all that Coach Dooley has meant to our University as an ambassador of our program and really all of college football. I know if he was looking down on that one he would have enjoyed the first half; I don't know that he would have enjoyed the second one. He has meant so much to us and in honor of him and their family, it was special. It was a tough time for that to happen. Our fans were also here, the environment was good. We lost momentum in the second half, faced resiliency and stared it in the eye, and we didn't blink and I'm really proud of our players. There was a time there that we lost momentum and that has happened to us more this year than it did last year and we bounced back. I am really proud of the players."

Daijun Edwards celebrates one of his two touchdowns against the Gators.

• The Bulldogs have won 23 straight regular-season games, including their last 16 SEC games. Georgia's 555 yards of total offense were the most-ever against the Gators, eclipsing the 502 in 1976. Coach Kirby Smart improved to 5-2 against the Gators and 74-15 overall.

• Georgia came in ranked second nationally in scoring defense, allowing 9.1 points a game. Florida was held to 20 points, including three in the first half. Florida scored 10 points off three Bulldog turnovers. Georgia collected three sacks on the Gators, who entered having allowed an SEC-low five overall. DB Chris Smith, LB Chaz Chambliss, and LB Mykel Williams registered sacks. Florida was limited to 100 yards rushing on 34 attempts (2.9 yards per carry) after entering leading the FBS at 6.4 yards per carry. The leading tacklers were DB Javon Bullard with a career-high eight followed by LBs Jamon Dumas-Johnson and Smael Mondon (seven each).

• QB Stetson Bennett completed 19-of-38 passes for 316 yards and 2 TDs and 2 INTs. In the second quarter, he connected with TE Brock Bowers for a 73-yard TD pass and a 21-0 lead. Bowers now has four TD receptions covering 70 yards or more in his career.

• QB Stetson Bennett, LB Nolan Smith, RB Kenny McIntosh, and LB Jamon Dumas-Johnson (LB) were the captains.

No. 3 Georgia 27, No. 1 Tennessee 13

Nov. 5, 2022 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

GAME 9

The Georgia defense quieted the nation's most prolific offense. The Georgia offense was explosive at times and efficient at others. And at the end, amid a roaring and raucous atmosphere at Sanford Stadium, the Bulldogs walked off of Dooley Field still undefeated.

Quarterback Stetson Bennett threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score, while the Bulldog defense sacked Tennessee quarterback Hendon Hooker six times during a battle of unbeatens that Georgia won 27-13 in front of 92,746 difference-making fans and a national CBS television audience.

According to the Associated Press, Saturday's game was just the fifth regular-season meeting this century featuring teams ranked Nos. 1 and 2 in its media poll. In the first College Football Playoff rankings released Tuesday, Tennessee was ranked No. 1 and Georgia No. 3, with Ohio State in between them.

The polls may be up for debate, but the numbers told the story about Tennessee's offense. It was No. 1 in the country in multiple key categories going into Saturday — 49.4 points and 553.0 yards per game — but the Bulldog defense, ranked among the nation's best in most categories, had the better day. Georgia (9-0, 6-0 SEC) outgained the Volunteers 389-289, with Bennett finishing 17-of-25 for 257 yards and the two touchdown passes plus a 13-yard scoring run.

It was the first home game since the passing of two Georgia legends, former football coach and director of athletics Vince Dooley, on Oct. 28 at age 90, and legendary football and baseball player Charley Trippi, who died on Oct. 19 at 100.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We have a bunch of the kids that love this place, they all love it here. They competed so hard. I am so proud for this university and these kids. They practiced hard, they played together, they stuck to the plan, and when you stick to the plan, you have a chance. Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide—that was our theme. Every coach sold the plan to the players and the players had to unselfishly buy into the plan. I think physical toughness won out. It was great for the players to hear it and buy in. ... I thought we came out and ran the ball really well. We actually ran it better early than we did later in the game. That usually is not our MO; we wear people down. ... Our fans were elite today. We asked them to be (loud), and they responded."

Ladd McConkey's 5-reception day was highlighted by a 37-yard TD catch late in the third quarter, giving Georgia a 14-3 early lead over Tennessee.

• Georgia improved to 3-5 all-time against the No. 1-ranked team in school history. The other wins over No. 1 teams came against Florida (28-3 in Jacksonville) in 1985 and Alabama (33-18) for the 2022 CFP National Championship in Indianapolis. This marked the highest-ranked matchup in the history of Sanford Stadium, whch opened in 1929. The Bulldogs now have won 24 straight regular-season games, including their last 17 SEC games in that span. Georgia now leads the Tennessee series 27-23-2. The Bulldogs have won six in a row, all by double digits. Coach Kirby Smart is now 6-1 against Tennessee and 75-15 overall.

• Georgia came in ranked second nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 10.5 points a game, while Tennessee came in leading the nation in scoring (49.4 ppg). The Bulldogs built a 24-6 halftime lead and ultimately won 27-13. The 13 points were the lowest scored by the Vols under Coach Josh Heupel. The Volunteers finished with 289 yards of total offense on 75 plays. They came in with a nation-leading average of 553 yards per game. DB Malaki Starks had a team-best and career-high 10 tackles.

• Brett Thorson had a 75-yard punt -- the 10th-longest in school history and the best since Drew Butler's 75-yarder in 2009.

No. 1 Georgia 45, Mississippi State 19

Nov. 12, 2022 • Davis Wade Stadium • Starkville, Miss.

GAME 10

Top-ranked Georgia clinched another berth in the SEC Championship Game with a 45-19 victory over Mississippi State in front of 60,352 fans at Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field and anb national ESPN television audience.

The Bulldogs will face LSU in the SEC Championship Game in Atlanta on Saturday, Dec. 3, following games at Kentucky and at home against Georgia Tech. Georgia will represent the East for the second straight year, the fifth time in six seasons, and for the 10th time overall.

Quarterback Stetson Bennett went 25-of-37 for 289 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for a score. He connected with tight ends Brock Bowers and Darnell Washington and receiver Ladd McConkey on the passing touchdowns. McConkey added a rushing touchdown and finished as the Bulldogs' leader in receiving (71) and rushing (70) yards. Tailback Kendall Milton sealed the game with a late touchdown run.

Georgia opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 2-yard pass from Bennett to Bowers. Georgia pushed its advantage to 10-0 in the second quarter with a 28-yard field goal by Podlesny. Following a State field goal, Bennett engineered an 8-play, 75-yard drive -- highlighted by two passes to receiver Kearis Jackson covering 38 yards -- and capped it with a 4-yard scoring run for a 17-3 lead. After the home-standing Bulldogs tacked on another field goal for a 17-6 score, Mississippi State's Zavion Thomas returned a punt 63 yards for a touchdown to make it 17-12 at intermission.

McConkey took over in the third quarter as he scored two touchdowns in a 5-minute span, then caught a 28-yard pass to set up another touchdown on the first play of the final stanza. McConkey raced 70 yards on an end-around rush for a score, then hauled in a 17-yard touchdown pass from Bennett. After McConkey's 28-yard catch got the Bulldogs into scoring position, Bennett opened the fourth quarter with a 2-yard touchdown pass to Washington. Milton put the game on ice as he darted 34 yards.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"Our team was resilient and fought and did what we asked of them. I am so proud of them. This is a tough environment, but our kids respected the environment and the momentum and the rhythm. I appreciate how we prepared in the right way, a very mature way. We never take winning the East for granted and that's where we are now, but we're playing for more than the East. We've got some things to clean up, so it's one day at a time."

Darnell Washington (0) and receiver Ladd McConkey (84) each caught touchdown passes in the win over Mississippi State.

• At 10-0, Georgia has double-digit wins for the fifth time in Coach Kirby Smart's seven seasons and the 27th in school history. The Bulldogs have won 25 straight regular-season games, including their last 18 SEC games in that span. Georgia leads the MSU series 20-6.

• Georgia came in ranked second nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 10.8 points a game while MSU came in scoring 32.6 per game. MSU finished with only 19 points on 310 yards of total offense on 67 plays. MSU had a 62-yard punt return for a TD by Zavion Thomas with three seconds left in the first half to make it 17-12. The Bulldogs have not allowed a TD in the first quarter this year (just three field goals) and led 7-0 after the first. Georgia has posted 20 scoreless quarters this season.

• QB Stetson Bennett passed for three touchdowns, giving him 53 for his career. That puts him fifth on Georgia's all-time list. Bennett helped Georgia go 5-for-5 in the red zone, including four TDs. The Bulldogs are 55-for-56 (39 TDs and 16 FGs) on the year.

• DB Kamari Lassiter, LB Jamon Dumas-Johnson, RT Warren McClendon, and WR Ladd McConkey were the captains. LG Xavier Truss returned to the starting lineup after missing last week.

No. 1 Georgia 16, Kentucky 6

Nov. 19, 2022 • Kroger Field • Lexington, Ky.

GAME 11

Powered by a dominant rushing attack, No. 1 Georgia fought off Kentucky 16-6 on a cold afternoon at Kroger Field in front of 61,002 fans and a national CBS television audience.

Georgia (11-0, 8-0) clinched a second straight undefeated run through its SEC regular-season schedule. It was Georgia's 13th consecutive win over Kentucky (6-5, 3-5).

Kenny McIntosh led the way for Georgia, rushing for a career-high 143 yards and a 9-yard touchdown on 19 attempts. Georgia outgained the Wildcats 365-289, including 249 yards rushing on 44 carries.

Georgia built a 9-0 in the first half as kicker Jack Podlesny converted field goals from 27, 24, and 37 yards. It marked the fifth time this season that the Bulldogs didn't allow any points in the first half.

Georgia used its running game to get into the end zone for the first time in the third quarter. Running back Kendall Milton ran for a combined 28 yards on the first three plays, running back Daijun Edwards had an 8-yard run, followed by a 4-yard reception, and then McIntosh did the rest. An 8-yard McIntosh run gave Georgia first-and-goal at the 10, and two plays later, he ran the ball in for a 9-yard touchdown and a 16-0 lead with 6:22 remaining in the third. That capped an 8-play, 58-yard drive that lasted nearly four minutes.

The Bulldogs' next drive included a 35-yard pass from quarterback Stetson Bennett to receiver Dominick Blaylock on third-and-6 at the Georgia 31. On third-and-7 at the Kentucky 31, McIntosh ran left for 23 yards down to the 8 (the run put McIntosh over 100 yards rushing in a game for the first time in his career). But on fourth-and-goal at the 1, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Milton was stopped short of the goal line.

Kentucky then drove 99 yards for a touchdown, scoring from the 8 on fourth-and-2. The Wildcats went for the 2-point conversion and came up empty, keeping it the eventual final score of 16-6.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"(Going undefeated in the SEC is) hard to do. In the last last 30 years, there had only been two, and it's hard to win on the road in the SEC. We just had four games in a row, three on the road, that were really tough and really physical. We knew this gauntlet was coming, and our guys put their heads down and worked really hard. Regardless of who we've faced, we stood up to the test that we've been asked to and am proud of what they've done."

Kenny McIntosh had the first 100-yard rushing game of his career and scored the Bulldogs' lone touchdown against Kentucky.

• Georgia improved to 11-0 overall and 8-0 in the SEC to post a perfect league mark for the second year in a row under Coach Kirby Smart. Georgia is just the third SEC team since 1992 to post back-to-back 8-0 league marks, joining Alabama (2008-09) and Florida (1995-96). The Bulldogs went 6-0 versus the East for the fourth time since 2017. The 2022 senior class has matched the school record for wins with a 45-5 mark. The 2021 class went 45-8. The Bulldogs have won 26 straight regular-season games, including their last 19 SEC contests. Georgia has won 13 straight over Kentucky and leads the series 62-12-2. Smart is 7-0 against the Wildcats and 77-15 overall. Georgia is 11-0 for the second straight year. Before the 2021 season, the last time Georgia was 11-0 was 1982.

• Georgia came in ranked second nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 11.6 points a game, while Kentucky entered scoring 23.3 points a game. The Wildcats finished with six points on 295 yards with 56 plays. Kentucky did have a 99-yard touchdown drive in nine plays in the fourth quarter. Georgia has posted 24 scoreless quarters, including its fifth first-half shutout.

• Georgia came in averaging 40.6 points per game and 509.6 yards of offense. The Bulldogs had just three possessions in the first half, running 31 plays and settling for three field goals with 161 yards of offense. They finished the contest with 16 points on nine drives with 363 yards of offense on 65 plays.

• Georgia went 4-for-5 in the Red Zone with one touchdown and field goals. Georgia is now 59-for-61 in the Red Zone with 40 TDs and 19 FGs.

• DL Jalen Carter, WR Kearis Jackson, DL Nazir Stackhouse, and C Sedrick Van Pran (C) were the captains.

No. 1 Georgia 37, Georgia Tech 14

Nov. 26, 2022 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, GA.

GAME 12

With its 37-14 win over Georgia Tech, top-ranked Georgia completed a second straight undefeated regular season. In addition, the 22 members of the Bulldogs' senior class earned their 46th win, becoming the winningest class in program history.

Georgia had to work for the victory, getting behind 7-0 and struggling to finish off drives against a spirited group of Yellow Jackets, playing under interim head coach Brent Key. During what was for a long time a low-scoring matchup on Dooley Field, kicker Jack Podlesny was pivotal, converting on field goals from 30, 50, and 36 yards. But then the Georgia offense got rolling and cruised to a blowout victory

Last year's class had the school record for career wins, going 45-8, while this group is now 46-5. The seniors, including Podlesny, quarterback Stetson Bennett, running back Kenny McIntosh, safety Christopher Smith, and more, were recognized before the game. .

McIntosh had a big day rushing and receiving. He finished with 86 yards on the ground and two receptions for 96 yards, including an 83-yarder early in the fourth quarter during a 99-yard scoring drive. McIntosh capped the drive one play after the long pass with a 2-yard TD plunge.

Bennett went 10-of-18 for 135 yards and touchdown passes to receiver Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint and tight end Brock Bowers. The Bulldogs also cashed in on a 44-yard touchdown run by tailback Kendall Milton early in the fourth quarter.

Linebacker Smael Mondon led the defense with six tackles, including 1.5 for loss. Defensive back Tykee Smith was one of three Bulldogs with five tackles, and he also had 1.5 for loss. Georgia finished with four sacks and 11 tackles behind the line of scrimmage.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"(Going 12-0 in the regular season for the second straight year) is hard to do. You schedule these games and you get everyone's best every single week. This team just keeps rising to the occasion. We came out a little flat, a little lethargic, you're always worried about your team over Thanksgiving because they take that break. But they answered the bell the second half. Georgia Tech helped us with some turnovers, but there are so many things we need to work on to get better at. I wish we had played better. I want to play better and that starts with us as coaches trying to get it better."

Linebacker Smael Mondon led the Bulldogs with six tackles, including one for loss, in the victory over Georgia Tech.

• Top-ranked Georgia is now 12-0 (8-0 SEC) after a 37-14 victory over Tech to claim the Governor's Cup Trophy and post a perfect regular season for the second year in a row under Coach Kirby Smart, and that's the first time in school history to do it in back-to-back seasons. The others came in 1896 (4-0), 1946 (11-0), 1980 (11-0), and 1982 (11-0). The Bulldogs now have won 27 straight regular-season games, which is a school record. Georgia has tied the school record for consecutive sellouts with No. 64. The current streak began versus Florida Atlantic in 2012. Georgia has now gone undefeated at home for the fifth time under Smart and is 37-4 overall in Athens (34-1 since 2017). Georgia has won five straight over Tech and now leads the series 70-39-5. Smart is 5-1 against Tech and 78-15 overall.

• Georgia came in ranked second nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 11.1 points a game. Tech managed 14 points; however it was limited to just 68 yards on 26 plays in the second half. Trailing 7-3 after the first, the Bulldogs blanked Tech in the second and third quarters. Georgia has posted 26 scoreless quarters this year.

• Georgia went 5-for-5 in the Red Zone with 3 TDs and 2 FGs. Georgia is now 64-for-66 in the Red Zone, including 43 TDs and 21 FGs.

• QB Stetson Bennett, DB Chris Smith, RB Kenny McIntosh, and OL Warren McClendon served as the captains. RB Kendall Milton had his first start of the year and just second of his career.

No. 1 Georgia 50, No. 14 LSU 30

Dec. 3, 2022 • Mercedes-Benz Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

GAME 13

Georgia produced explosive plays all over the field during its 50-30 win over LSU in the SEC Championship Game in front of a national CBS television audience and 74,810 fans at Mercedes-Benz Stadium.

On offense, defense and special teams, the Bulldogs (13-0) delivered en route to the program's first SEC title since 2017. Georgia's offense produced a gaudy 529 yards and went 5-for-5 in the red zone.

While the defense gave up a lot of yards and big plays, it also forced three turnovers and made multiple timely stops to help Georgia pull away for good. And special teams produced a touchdown early, when safety Christopher Smith alertly picked up a blocked field goal and ran 96 yards untouched for the game's first score.

LSU (9-4) generated 549 yards of offense, 502 through the air, striking for multiple big plays against Georgia's highly rated defense. But the Bulldogs hunkered down when they had to. Georgia has now captured 14 SEC titles and improved to 4-6 in the SEC Championship Game.

Quarterback Stetson Bennett was named the game's Most Valuable Player as he went 23-of-29 for 274 yards and four touchdowns. Bennett's scoring tosses went to tight ends Brock Bowers and Darnell Washington and receivers Ladd McConkey and Dillon Bell.

Running backs Kendall Milton, Daijun Edwards, and Kenny McIntosh paced the running game's 255 yards as they went for 113, 77, and 55, respectively. McIntosh rushed for two scores for the Bulldogs.

Saturday's game was just the second time this season that the Bulldogs have hit the 50-part mark. The first came in their 55-0 rout of Vanderbilt on Oct. 15.

Linebacker Smael Mondon and defensive back Javon Bullard paced Georgia with six tackles apiece. The Bulldogs got interceptions from Smith and Mondon and a fumble recovery by defensive lineman Warren Brinson.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We came here with a plan to have a connected assault. We talked about it all week. We wanted our team to stay connected, and they did that. Our team kind of played this game like they played the whole season: unbelievably well in spurts and unbelievably poor in spurts, and answered the bell when they had to. I'm proud of them. They've handled that all year. I want to give a lot of credit to Brian Kelly and the LSU team that never went away, never quit fighting. Had an injured quarterback. They did a really good job of fighting and pushing through. But this has been a different group. You guys have tried to label them, tried to figure them out, tried to analyze them. They're not comprehendible. They do what they have to do, and they do it well. They care about each other and they really do it for each other."

Malaki Starks (24) and Chris Smith (29) celebrate Smith's 96-yard return of a blocked first-quarter field goal vs. LSU.

• Georgia improved to 13-0 for the first time ever and captured its 14th SEC title in school history. The 2022 senior class added to its school record for wins as it now stands at 47-5. The Bulldogs have won 15 straight going back to last season's CFP semifinal/Capital One Orange Bowl win over No. 2 Michigan. This is the second SEC title in the Kirby Smart era (the first since 2017) as the Bulldogs are now 79-15 in his seven seasons at the helm.

• Georgia's 35 first-half points tied the mark for most in an SEC Championship Game first half as Alabama led Florida 35-17 in 2020. QB Stetson Bennett now has 269 completions this season, which ties the single-season record set by Eric Zeier in 1993. Georgia converted a 2-point play when WR AD Mitchell tossed one to TE Darnell Washington to make it 50-23 with 13:13 left in the game. It was the first successful 2-point conversion since Bennett ran in for one against Arkansas in 2020.

• LSU passed for 502 yards, the second-most ever by a Bulldog opponent, trailing only the 528 put up by Kenucky in Georgia's 34-30 win in Lexington in 2000.

No. 1 Georgia 42, No. 4 Ohio State 41

Dec. 31, 2022 • Mercedes-Benz Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

GAME 14

Quarterback Stetson Bennett connected with receiver Adonai Mitchell for the go-ahead touchdown with less than a minute remaining as No. 1 Georgia topped No. 4 Ohio State 42-41 on Saturday in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl in front of 79,330 fans and a national ESPN television audience.

The Bulldogs, who will be vying for their second straight national championship against No. 3 TCU, survived as Ohio State missed a 50-yard field goal with just three seconds remaining.

Georgia outgained the Buckeyes 533-467 and closed the game with 18 fourth-quarter points. Bennett, the game's Offensive MVP, hit on 23-of-34 passes for 398 yards and three touchdowns. His scoring tosses went to Mitchell, receiver Arian Smith, and running back Kenny McIntosh. McIntosh had 10 offensive touches for 126 yards and the score.

Defensive MVP honors went to defensive back Javon Bullard, who registered a sack among his three tackles and broke up a pass in the end zone. Defensive back Chris Smith logged a team-high eight tackles, while linebacker Smael Mondon had seven stops, including a sack.

Ohio State posted a Noah Ruggles 48-yard field goal with 2:43 to play to push its lead to 41-35, giving the Bulldogs at least a shot at pulling out the comeback win. Georgia made the most of it, executing a 5-play, 72-yard drive in 102 seconds that culminated in the 10-yard touchdown pass from Bennett to Mitchell in the left corner of the end zone. Kicker Jack Podlesny's extra point put the Bulldogs ahead 42-41 with 54 seconds left.

Quarterback C.J. Stroud led the Buckeyes down the field on their final drive, running and throwing Ohio State into Georgia territory. His 27-yard scramble reached the 31-yard line, setting up Ruggles for a 50-yard attempt with eight seconds left. It never had a chance, missing well left.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"Our guys are extremely resilient. We talked at halftime about some games that we have been in this year that we've been behind in, including the Missouri game. I had no doubt that our team would come out fighting. We didn't play our best football game. A lot of that had to do with Ohio State. I have a lot of respect for them and a lot of these players that are on this podium with me and the guys in the locker room. If we want any chance at winning a national championship, we have to play a lot better football than we played tonight. We've got to keep the resiliency and composure along with us. ... It is amazing anytime you win. I think emotionally it takes a lot more out of you as compared to maybe the Michigan game last year in terms of the game being over in the fourth quarter. This was an emotional roller coaster. It was a back-and-forth game. It was a 'who's going to blink?' Two really good teams fighting."

Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl Defensive MVP Javon Bullard had three tackles, including this sack of Buckeyes quarterback C.J. Stroud.

• No. 1 Georgia posted a 42-41 win over No. 4 Ohio State to advance to its second straight CFP National Championship Game (and third overall) in the biggest fourth-quarter comeback in the Coach Kirby Smart era as well as the CFP era by any team. Georgia's previous high second-half comeback was 11 points against Cincinnati in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl to end the 2020 season, winning 24-21.

• Georgia (14-0) will face TCU in the CFP National Championship Game in Los Angeles on Jan. 9. Georgia is 4-0 all-time versus TCU, including a 31-23 Liberty Bowl win in Smart's first season in 2016. The Bulldogs are 1-1 in the CFP National Championship Game. Georgia is making its third appearance in the CFP and extended the nation's longest active bowl streak to 26 straight years. The Bulldogs are 36-21-3 all-time in bowls, and the appearances and victories rank second nationally.

• OLB Nolan Smith, QB Stetson Bennett, OL Sedrick Van Pran served as the captains. OL Amarius Mims made his first career start in place of OL Warren McClendon, who had started 37 consecutive games, the longest streak on the team.

No. 1 Georgia 65, No. 3 TCU 7

Jan. 9, 2023 • SoFi Stadium • Inglewood, Calif.

GAME 15

In a dominant performance, the Georgia Bulldogs etched their name in history with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the 2023 College Football Playoff National Championship Game before 72,628 fans at SoFi Stadium and an ESPN national television audience.

With the win, Georgia became the first team in the College Football Playoff era to win back-to-back national titles. It also extended the team's winning streak to 17 straight, tying the previous school record set in 1947.

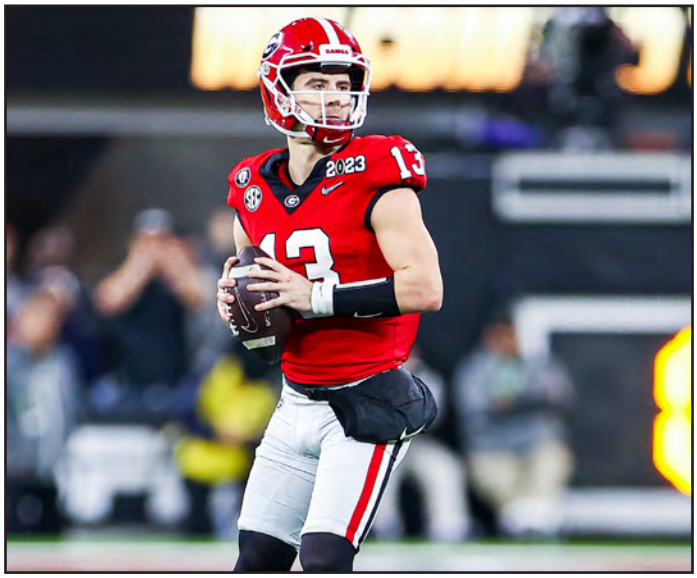
The Bulldogs jumped on the Horned Frogs early with mutliple long completions to Brock Bowers, leading to a 21-yard touchdown run from Stetson Bennett. Soon after, Christopher Smith forced a TCU fumble that was recovered by Javon Bullard and set up a 24-yard Jack Podlesny field goal. TCU then scored its lone points of the evening on a 2-yard run from Max Duggan, facilitated by a 60-yard completion to the Georgia 11. Georgia quickly responded with a 37-yard scoring strike from Bennett to Ladd McConkey.

Another Bennett rushing touchdown capped off a 92-yard scoring drive, followed by a Bullard interception of Duggan. The Bulldogs continued to march before Kendall Milton scored from one yard out. On the ensuing drive, Bullard grabbed another pick, allowing Bennett to hit Adonai Mitchell from 22 yards out to make the score 38-7 at halftime.

In the third quarter, Bowers finished Georgia's first drive with a 22-yard touchdown catch, contributing to his incredible 152-yard performance. Later in the period, Bennett tied a CFP record with his sixth touchdown, finding McConkey for a 14-yard touchdown. As the clock ran down, freshman Branson Robinson added to the final margin with a pair of fourth-quarter rushing touchdowns, putting the exclamation point on Georgia's second-consecutive national championship.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"I want to thank our fans for traveling all the way out here...You can't take opportunities like this for granted, and they showed up in full force. They better never get tired of it because we need them here....I did have a feeling that our offense had a really good plan. As I watched the offense each day, I said, 'We've got a good plan. If we execute this plan, we're going to attack these guys and we're going to be really agressive.' I was proud of the defense after two outings that we did not perform well. They have a first-round receiver. They've got a Heisman Trophy quarterback that was a finalist. I though our defense performed well tonight with their backs against the wall...I wouldn't be who I am today without the University of Georgia. I was lucky to get a chance to go to the University of Georgia, and I want to give back to a place that meant so much to my life."



Quarterback Stetson Bennett was named CFP Championship Game Offensive MVP for the second-consecutive year as he tallied a record-tying six touchdowns.

Worth Noting…

• With the National Championship win, Georgia captured its fourth national championship and became the first team to win back-to-back titles in the CFP era. The only other teams to win two straight since 1990 have been Nebraska (1994-95), USC (2003-04) and Alabama (2011-12)

• The 2022 senior class concluded its career with a school-record 49-5 mark and two national championships. Additionally, Georgia became only the third FBS team in the modern era to finish a season at 15-0.

• Georgia's 65 points were the most ever in a CFP National Championship Game, along with a record margin of victory of 58 points. The 38 first-half points also set a CFPCG record.

• Quarterback Stetson Bennett earned his fourth CFP Offensive MVP Award while tying Joe Burrow for the championship game record of six individual touchdowns. He also broke Aaron Murray's single-season mark for passing yards with 4,127 and became the first Bulldog QB to rush for two TDs since Justin Fields against Tennessee in 2018.

• Despite only playing one half, defensive back Javon Bullard earned Defensive MVP honors for the second-straight playoff game as he accounted for all three Georgia turnovers (two INTs and a fumble recovery).

• Former Georgia QB and Rams Super Bowl Champion Matthew Stafford served as honorary captain in his home field of SoFi Stadium.
